1. When Informal Reviews are Required

However, an applicant whose application is denied for reasons of citizenship or eligible immigrant status shall be provided an "Informal Hearing."

2. When Informal Reviews are not Required

Informal Reviews are not required, in the following circumstances:

- a. Discretionary administrative determinations such as what constitutes a complete application, how and when applications will be assigned for review, and what resources will be devoted to the review of a particular application or applications in general;
- b. General policy issues or class grievances such as local preferences and income eligibility;
- c. The determination of the family unit size under Authority's subsidy standards;
- d. A refusal to extend or suspend a voucher;

- e. A determination not to approve tenancy for a specific unit;
 - f. A determination that a unit selected by an applicant is not in compliance with HQS because of characteristics of the unit; or
 - g. A determination that a unit is not in accordance with HQS due to family size or composition.

- c. The procedure for requesting a review; and

4. Procedures for Informal Review

A request for an informal review must be submitted in writing to the Authority no later than 30 calendar days from the date of the Authority's denial notice. Late requests will not be processed unless the applicant demonstrates the delay was due to extraordinary circumstances beyond their control.

The applicant will be provided the opportunity to present oral and/or written objections to the denial. Both the Authority and the applicant may present evidence and witness. An applicant may, at their own expense, be represented by an attorney or other representative. An applicant may be present at the review to provide information, but the applicant's presence is not required,

Unless special circumstances apply, the decision of the review officer shall be provided to the applicant in writing within 14 calendar days after the review and shall include an explanation of the reasons for the decision.

5. Consideration of Circumstances in Discretionary Denials

The Authority may impose, as a condition of assistance for other family members, a requirement that family members who participated in or were culpable for the action or failure will not reside in the unit.

6. Informal Reviews When Denial is Based on Eligible Immigration Status

The applicant family may request that the Authority provide for an informal review after the family has notification of the INS decision on appeal, or in lieu of request of appeal to the INS. This request must be made by the applicant family within 30 days of receipt of the Notice of Denial or Termination of Assistance, or within 30 days of receipt of the INS appeal decision.

For applicant families, the Informal Review Process above will be utilized with the exception that the applicant family will have up to 30 days of receipt of the Notice of Denial or Termination of Assistance, or of the INS appeal decision to request the review.

Evidence presented at the hearing may be considered without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence in a judicial proceeding.

The Hearing Office may ask the family for additional information and/or may adjourn the hearing as needed. If the family requests a reasonable accommodation during the hearing, the Hearing Officer will make a decision as to whether the hearing must be adjourned to consider the request.

If the family fails to appear at the hearing or fails to meet a deadline imposed by the Hearing Officer, the decision of the Authority shall become final and take effect immediately. No new hearing will be granted unless the family is able to demonstrate to the Authority, by clear and compelling evidence, that their failure to appear or meet the deadline was caused by circumstances beyond their control.

See attached Exhibit "C" for Procedures Governing Remote Hearings.

6. Standard of Review

The Hearing Officer will determine whether the Authority's action or decision is consistent with HUD regulations and its administrative plans and policies, based upon the evidence and testimony provided at the hearing. The decision shall also include a statement of the right to seek an Appeal of the decision to the Executive Director.

The Appeal must be submitted to the Executive Director within 14 calendar days. Unless proof of extraordinary circumstances is provided, late Appeals will not be considered. Failure to submit a timely Appeal is a waiver of the right to Appeal to the Executive Director. The Appeal should include a clear and concise statement of the reason(s) for disagreeing with the Hearing Officers' decision; The legal rule or policy which has been misapplied, misapplied, or not properly considered by the Hearing Officer; All facts which have been misunderstood, misapplied or not properly considered by the Hearing Officer or new information which would change the decision. Appeals should include all documents and evidence which support the Appeal.

8. Consideration of Circumstances

In circumstances when the termination of a participant is within the discretion of the Authority, the Authority may consider all circumstances in each case including the seriousness of the case, the extent of participation or culpability of the individual family members and the effective of termination of assistance on other family members who were not involved in the action or failure.

The Authority may impose, as a condition of assistance for other family members, a requirement that family members who participated in or were culpable for the action or failure will not reside in the unit.

12. Appeals to the Executive Director

The Authority permits applicants and participants to submit written appeals to the Executive Director to challenge the Fair Hearing decisions issued by the Hearing Officer. Appeals are based on the existing record obtained before the Hearing Officer, with further testimony or documents requested when necessary. The Executive Director or his/her designee will issue a written determination in response to the request for Appeal. Appeals will be reviewed to ensure that the Hearing Officer's determination is in accordance with applicable Federal, State, or local law and all facts and evidence. See Appendix "A".

13. Informal Hearing for Termination of Assistance on the Basis of Ineligible Immigration Status

The participant family may request that the Authority provide for an informal hearing after the family has notification of the INS decision on appeal, or in lieu of request of appeal to the INS. For participant families, the Informal Hearing Process above will be utilized with the exception that the participant family will have up to 30 days of receipt of the Notice of Denial or Termination of Assistance, or of the INS appeal decision to request the review.

III. PROCEDURES FOR RESIDENTS OF PBV-RAD AND OWNED AND MANAGED PROPERTIES

B. Procedures for Residents of PBV-RAD and Owned and Managed Properties

1. Informal Settlement of a Grievance

Any grievance shall be promptly presented, either orally or in writing, to the Authority's Property Manager so that the grievance may be discussed informally and settled without a hearing. A summary of such discussion shall be prepared within ten (10) calendar days and one copy shall be given to the resident and one retained in the Authority's resident file. The summary shall specify the names of the participants, dates of the meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the complaint and the specific reasons therefore and shall specify the procedures by which a hearing under these procedures may be obtained if the resident is not satisfied.

If there should be any conflict between this policy and Federal, State, or local laws and regulations, or the executed Lease, the laws, regulations, and Lease shall prevail

2. Formal Grievance Hearing

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the settlement arrived at in the informal hearing, the complainant shall submit a written request for a hearing to the Authority within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the mailing of the summary of the discussion as indicated above under "Informal Settlement of a Grievance." The written request shall specify:

- a. The reasons for the grievance; and
- b. The action or relief sought.

A. Selection of A Hearing Officer

A grievance hearing shall be conducted by an impartial person appointed by the Executive Director of the Authority, other than a person who made or approved the action under review or a subordinate of such person.

B. Failure to Request a Hearing

If the resident does not request a hearing in accordance with this Section, then the Authority's disposition of the grievance shall become final. However, failure to request a hearing does not constitute a waiver by the resident of the right thereafter to contest the Authority's action in disposing of the complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

C. Escrow Deposit Required for Hearing Involving Rent

Before a hearing is scheduled in any grievance involving the amount of rent, as defined in the lease which the Authority claims is due, the resident shall pay to the Authority an amount equal to the amount of the rent due and payable as of the first of the month preceding the month in which the act or failure to act took place. The resident shall thereafter deposit monthly the same amount of the monthly rent in an escrow account held by the Authority until the complaint is resolved by decision of the Hearing Officer. Amounts deposited into the escrow account shall not be considered as acceptance of money for rent during the period in which the grievance is pending. In extenuating circumstances, the Authority may determine to waive these requirements, as evidenced by notifying the resident in writing. Unless so waived, the failure to make such payments shall result in a termination of the grievance procedure. However, failure to make payment shall not constitute a waiver of any right the resident may have to contest the Authority's disposition of his grievance in any appropriate judicial proceeding.

D. Scheduling of Hearings

Upon the resident's compliance with this Section, the Hearing Officer shall promptly schedule a hearing for a time and place reasonably convenient to both the resident and the Authority. A written notification specifying the time, place, and the procedures governing the hearing shall be mailed to the resident and given to the appropriate Authority staff. See attached Procedures Governing Remote Hearings.

When a Hearing is not Required

The Authority's grievance procedures shall not be applicable to disputes between tenants not involving the Authority or to class grievances. This policy is not intended as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes between a group or groups of tenants and the Authority's Board of Commissioners.

E. Procedures Governing the Grievance Hearing

The complainant shall be afforded a Grievance Hearing, which shall include:

1. Upon written request and reasonable notice to the Authority, prior to the hearing, the opportunity to examine any Authority documents, including records and regulations that are directly relevant to the hearing. The resident shall be provided a copy of any such document at the resident's expense. If the Authority does not make the document available for examination upon written request by the resident, the Authority may not rely on such document at the grievance hearing.

2. The right to be represented by counsel or other person chosen as the resident's representative and to have such person make statements on the resident's behalf;
 3. The right to a private hearing unless the resident requests a public hearing;
 4. The right to present evidence and arguments in support of the resident's complaint, to controvert evidence relied on by the Authority and to confront and cross examine all witnesses upon whose testimony or information on which the Authority relies; and
 5. A decision based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing.
 6. The Hearing Officer may render a decision without holding a hearing if the Hearing Officer determines that the issue has been previously decided at another hearing.
 7. If either the complainant or Authority fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the Hearing Officer may postpone the hearing for no more than 5 business days or determine that the missing party has waived their right to a hearing. Both the Authority and the resident shall be notified of the Hearing Officer's decision. This decision shall not waive a resident's right to contest the disposition of the grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.
 8. At the hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought and thereafter the Authority must sustain the burden of justifying the Authority action or failure to act against which the complaint is directed.
 9. The hearing shall be conducted informally by the Hearing Officer and oral or documentary evidence pertinent to the facts and issues raised by the complaint may be received without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings. The Hearing Officer will require the Authority, the complainant, counsel, and any other participants to conduct themselves in an orderly fashion. Failure to comply with directions of the Hearing Officer to obtain order may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.
 10. The complainant or the Authority may arrange, in advance and at the expense of the party making the arrangement, for a transcript of the hearing. Any interested party may purchase a copy of such transcript.

F. Decision of the Hearing Officer

The Hearing Officer shall prepare a written decision, together with the reasons, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the hearing. Copies of the decision shall be mailed to the complainant and given to the Authority. The Authority shall retain a copy of the decision in the resident's file. The Authority shall maintain a log of hearing officer decisions and make that log available upon request of the hearing officer, or a prospective complainant's representative.

The decision of the Hearing Officer shall be binding on the Authority who shall take all actions, or refrain from any actions, necessary to carry out the decision unless the Authority's Executive Director or Board of Commissioners determines within reasonable time, and promptly notifies the complainant of its determination, that:

1. The grievance does not concern Authority action or failure to act in accordance with or involving the resident's lease or Authority regulations, which adversely affect the resident's rights, duties, welfare, or status;
2. The decision of the Hearing Officer is contrary to applicable Federal, State, or local law, Authority regulations, or requirements of the Annual Contributions Contract between the Authority and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

A decision by the Hearing Officer or Board of Commissioners in favor of the Authority or which denies the relief requested by the resident in whole or in part shall not constitute a waiver of, nor affect in any manner whatsoever, any rights the resident may have to a trial de novo or judicial review in any judicial proceedings, which may thereafter be brought in the matter.
